Xulon Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The story is narrated by Josiah, a fictional character, who meets Lazarus in Capernaum. They become close friends and, through a wide range of activities, Lazarus brings Josiah to faith. Many of these joint activities involve Jesus, while others involve Martha and Mary, Philip, James, Zacchaeus, Bartimaeus, Paul of Tarsus and others. Josiah relates the account of Lazarus life and deaths to his inquisitive great nephew, Reuben. Reuben and Josiah s wife, Miriam, have innumerable questions for Josiah, which allow for discussions about a wide range of issues such as: Why did Jesus family initially reject his ministry? Should we always do what we can to stop evil from happening? Why did Jesus weep loudly at Lazarus tomb? What did Lazarus experience when he died or was he just asleep? First century Jewish laws, the importance of the Temple, the history of important Jewish festivals, the interplay between the Sanhedrin and Roman authorities, and what was Jewish life really like in the Roman world, provide interesting context to the entire rest of the story about Lazarus.
