Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Most people have heard of the prodigal son, but who was the prodigal father? In this retelling of one of the most famous stories in the world, Jonathan Williams sets you on a course to experience forgiveness in all its dimensions - with God, with others, and with yourself. The rich cultural and historical details, often lost to the modern readers, make the story come alive for today s audience. This book is complete with reflection/discussion questions for your life and small group. The appendix lists the historical and cultural insights for the four parts of the story - The Opening Scene, In a Far Country, The Son Returns, and The Older Son.
