ELLIE S ELF

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A note from Richard - This is both a heartbreaking and a heart-warming feel-good story for Christmas about a young girl and the little elf who becomes her best friend. However it deals with bullying at school and domestic violence at home, and therefore is not written for younger readers. I've attempted something quite difficult here! A story about an elf that is written for everyone from advanced middle-grade readers upwards. And yes I mean everyone! I'm hoping this story has a genuine appeal to all age groups. Perhaps if you decide to read it you will write a review to let me know what you think? The story begins in the present day - Eleanor Parkin takes her two young children to a friend's party with a pixies-and-elves theme. It's a hot summer's day, she decides to stick around but while watching the children at play in the garden she suddenly sees something that chills her to the bone. It's just an innocent boy; dressed in an elf costume - but it is identical in every way to the clothes worn by someone she once knew. Unable to look away, as she watches him at play awful memories come flooding back; memories of a time so horrific she thought she'd locked them away forever. Now a smart, confident woman in total control of her life, for Eleanor it hadn't always been that way. Once upon a time it was all very different. It's 1992, and eleven-year-old Ellie lives a life in hell. It is the week before Christmas and the snow is falling. But for Ellie that just...
