Excerpt: . . . children and the elderly; and the collection of knowledge, behavior, and attitude data from one adult in the household, rather than targeting the main meal planner preparer. In 1992, Westat, Incorporated, a private research firm in Rockville, Maryland, was awarded the contract for the CSFII 1994 - 96 after competitive bidding. Westat designed the sample to meet the precision and sample yield requirements specified by USDA; designed and formatted the questionnaires; worked collaboratively with USDA to further develop the survey methods and procedures; developed the promotional materials, and, as specified by the contract, conducted a pilot study of all survey procedures, operations, and materials. USDA defined the information to be collected; monitored the contract; provided technical information, such as food codes and gram weights of standard measures of food for use in coding; and provided Survey Net, a computer-assisted system for the coding of reported food intakes. Westat collected the...
