Xulon Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Life Journey of Sonny Rudd as an Interstate Trucker, a Preacher on Wheels, award winning author and much more This autobiography accounts for the life and life changing events of the author from his childhood through his thirty-plus years of ministry. In this book the author recalls meaningful stories of his childhood and years through adulthood, ranging from the comical to the significant, among these are stories of how God brought him safely through an armed border crossing without any documents and a dream from God that prompted a timely decision just minutes before the first of the Twin Towers was hit. This book is an inspiring read of life on the road of bumps and sudden turns, one that pleasantly surprises you how God is always at the end of uncertain destinations in life. The author is a personal friend and there is an authenticity that rings about his personal struggles and the way he shares from his heart. You will benefit from reading this book if you want to learn about how God can do the miraculous in your daily life and you will find plenty of inspiration and tips on how to make the big U-Turn after discovering there was a wrong turn made somewhere else. - Dr. Ramon Ray Moran (Associate Faculty at University of Phoenix; Adjunct Faculty, Liberty University Theological Seminary) Sonny has captured key moments of his life by bringing forth a point of interest in each chapter that can make you either laugh or cry all at once. He has shown how the inner working of the Lord has brought out the best in him. As his wife, I...
