

Proving Contraries": A Collection of Writings in Honor of Eugene England

By -

Signature Books, 2005. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. 1560851902 In honor of the late BYU Professor Eugene England (1933-2001) , friends and colleagues have contributed their best original stories, poems, reminiscences, scholarly articles, and essays for this impressive volume. In one essay, ?Eugene England Enters Heaven, ? Robert A. Rees imagines his friend being welcomed into heaven by the Savior. Rees then imagines England "organizing contests between the Telestial and Celestial Kingdoms, leading a theater tour to Kolob, and pleading the cause of friends still struggling in mortality. This," he concludes, "is the image I have of Gene, that I hold in my heart." from the dust jacket: Douglas Thayer writes about an atheist who believes in miracles. Karen Rosenbaum portrays a university student who is a closet believer (and sometimes a closet doubter). This kind of honesty portraying believable characters?in avoiding stereotypes and easy answers?comes from a lifetime of writing and thinking deeply about life. The same applies to the non-fiction writers represented in this anthology. Dennis Marden Clark tells of following an inner compass to embrace pacifism but agonizing over the LDS Church?s history of militancy. Yet, in a close reading of LDS scripture, he...
