The stories in this book could very well be about you. A little preview. Every Saturday morning at nine o clock, all of the kids in the neighborhood would gather at Mr. Henry s house, after Mr. Henry had finished his coffee. This was because Mr. Henry was always a great storyteller; he told the best stories. Mr. Henry always wore a sailor s hat with a bright red shirt and baggy brown pants. He was really funny too. His house was very colorful; white with red and green trim with shutters of pink that made it the prettiest house of them all. As we all sat down around Mr. Henry on his front porch, one of the kids said, Mr. Henry, what story are you going to tell us today? Mr. Henry replied, I think I ll tell the one about the man who wanted to buy some flowers for his daughter.
