Negrophilia: From Slave Block to Pedestal - America's Racial Obsession (Hardback)

By Erik Rush

WND BOOKS, United States, 2010. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. American Society Is Gripped by a bizarre and baffling condition that threatens the nation's very well being. But don't expect any surgeon general warnings, celebrity PSAs, or prescription drug commercials to even whisper of it. That's because this societal sickness is rooted in (peek over shoulders, lower voice). race.No other four-letter word carries connotations as vile. It possesses the power to wound and outrage, to detonate careers, to summon victim mongers, and paralyze honest conversation. Into this hot zone enters Erik Rush, who boldly uses the N-word---Negrophilia--in penning what's destined to become the definitive book on race politics in America.The condition of Negrophilia, as Rush diagnoses it, entrances whites and renders blacks spellbound.Prodded by guilt and reprogrammed by press propaganda, whites succumb to Negrophilia when, believing that people of color are somehow more benevolent and less corruptible than themselves, they develop an undue affinity for them.Blacks suffer worse when they embrace this base patronization. They're denied accountability for their own actions. They're shackled by their acceptance of the nobility---no matter how lacking---of all black leaders. They're ripe for the...
