British Honduras.--Consul Morlau, ot Belize, states that the imports for the calendar years 18!A and 189a were: Aside from Mexico, almost the entire increase of imports is from the United States. Consul Morlan thinks the increase is likely to continue, as the people are becoming more and more accustomed to our products and manufactures. The superior quality of American goods and the quick and frequent means of communication between the two countries five us a great advantage. The exports of British Honduras were: The decrease of exports to the United States is largely made up by the reduced shipment of fruits. Consul Morlan thinks the...
