Knowing that that person floating on the water was fasting and weeping and crying, and seeing that he was really fasting for the good, the Grandfather took mercy on him. So the Father floating on the water, and who was fasting on this tripod, called all the water-fowls, and so they all came. Now, says this man, I want some of you who can do the work of diving to come and search for the bottom of the sea and see if you can find dirt. So they all came in rotation according to their size. And they dived and came out dead. It took some days for these birds to dive. Finally it was the turn...
